It has been another exciting week with lots of learning and exciting activities taking place in and beyond the classroom. The swimming pool is in the process of being cleaned and practise for athletics is well underway. Feedback was positive from the children who participated in the Rats Duathlon with great photos attached. Remember that photos are taking place tomorrow. If your child was in a hockey team please bring in your uniform.

Please settle invoices online (12-3155-0006515-00) or at the office ASAP

THE GIANT JAM SANDWICH! Last week pod 1 made jam sandwiches. Pod 1 watched a story about 4 million wasps that go to a town and annoy the people of itching down. The wasps scared all the people away and stung everyone in their path. The mayor called a town meeting and asked if anyone had any ideas on how to stop the wasps but everyone was stumped until the chef had an awesome idea, to make a giant loaf of bread and put it in the field with a truck load of butter and a mountain of jam. The wasps made a beeline for the bread and as soon as all of them were munching away on the jam, helicopters came and dropped the other piece of bread to finish the sandwich and trap the wasps.

Jack: "I'm excited to eat the jam sandwiches"

Hunter: "I'm excited to make the jam sandwiches"

Amy: "I can't wait to eat the jam sandwich because they are yummy."
