PRINCIPALS CORNER

A special thank you to Alice for revamping the look of our newsletter. We appreciate the time and creativity that has gone into giving it a fresh new appearance. As we look ahead, student reports will be sent home at the beginning of Week 11. We understand that some of the descriptors and expectations used in reports may be new to families, so before reports go out we will share a guide to help you better understand how to interpret your child's report and progress.
